Dear All,

On behalf of all the volunteers of ABIO Rome, I would like to thank you all for your precious contribution to our Association.

It is only thanks to this kind of generosity and support, in various manners from all kind of friends, that ABIO Rome can proudly continue to grow, both in terms of quality of its services and quantity of its activities; every day volunteers ABIO donate their time to help children and adolescents to overcome the impact of an unknown environment, along with their personal sufferance and the pain their families live. All of this, by simply being there with a smile, a game or a drawing. Besides this, volunteers are often a support for those parents looking for someone to talk too, someone to share their thoughts and fears with, or even, simply, helping out during their absence from the hospital.

ROMA

Thanks to their commitment and enthusiasm, the pediatric wards become an environment filled with games, smiles and colors.

A kind welcome and a warm environment, besides fun and support: these are the magic words that every volunteer has in mind and has had for the past thirty years of experience of this organization, in order to help turning the hospital into a less alien and frightening place to be. This by creating children friendly furniture and game rooms in tune with the emotional and affective needs of children and adolescents.

In particular, the funds raised through your generosity will be used to support a project shelter for mothers of children with leukemia

With our warmest appreciation, I send you my best regards

Sincerely

Eugenio Bernardi
