1 Contact

- Contact your preferred mentor directly or our administration at mentoring@aicr.ch

2 Start

- Before coming to an agreement and starting the mentoring program, the mentor and mentee will need to plan a first session - an introductory interview either personally or online

3 Mentoring

- A mentor is committed to your success and yet not invested in it
- Topics might be: supporting to overcome challenges, drafting career development plan, sharing expertise and experience and more

INTENTION TO EMPOWER YOU!

A mentor wants to empower you to be effective and gain the results you want. That means that ultimately the responsibility for the outcomes of mentoring is yours. That's a good thing, because it means that you stay in charge, e.g. of your own decisions and actions.
